

Outputs

17 rescue excavations and great number of field inventories carried out

4 digital archaeological databases common for Estonia, Latvia, Russia produced

6 tourist routes in Estonia, Latvia and Russia (2 in each country) created

1 Viking Age farmstead in Rõuge, Estonia created/ reconstructed

3 mobile exhibitions in Pskov, 1 new exhibition in Aluksne Museum and 3 new workshops in Ludza Museum elaborated

7 books, 22 booklets, 31 leaflets, 19 brochures, 6 Newsletters issued and 8 educational films about archaeology prepared

3 editions of popular journal of archaeological science "Tutulus" issued

Around 150 public information days, schoolings, workshops organised in Estonia, Latvia and Russia

Conservation laboratory in Pskov, Russia reconstructed

Around 2300 archaeological sites inspected or found in Estonia, Latvia and Russia

1 new CBC organisation between Estonia, Latvia and Russia "Archaeological Heritage Protection Network" established

1 project website created

Project website: www.aac-project.eu

Information day on Aakre tarand-grave in Estonia, July 2014

Information day for children in Rāpina Gymnasium in Estonia, October 2012

Excursion of students of Tartu University to Pskov, Russia, July 2013

Seminar for tour guides in Pskov, Russia, April 2014

Rescue excavations in Aakre, Estonia,
July 2014

Reconstruction seminar in Rõuge,
Estonia, August 2014

Seminar „Historical evidence of underwater in Aluksne“ Aluksne,
Latvia, May 2014

Seminar in Cesis, Latvia, January
2014

Press tour in Põlvamaa, Võrumaa,
Tartumaa, Estonia, November 2014

RESULTS

A big amount of new archaeological information harvested, recovered and preserved for future studies

Archaeological and common cultural heritage preserved for next generations

Awareness of people of border areas risen about archaeological heritage and preservation of archaeological heritage

Systemised information available in databases on archaeological finds for Estonia, Latvia, Russia

Storage and assessment facilities of archaeological finds improved in Riga (Latvia) and Pskov (Russia)

Awareness of employees of local municipalities of Estonia, Latvia and Russia raised in terms of heritage protection

Cross border cooperation contacts between people, organisations in field of archaeology established and strengthened

Different organisations ensure the cooperation plans for future